- For faster resolution and safer and more efficient transmission, you are encouraged to protest online through your MiWAM account. You may also attach documents to your protest in MiWAM.
- In your protest or appeal, indicate the reason(s) why you do not agree with the (re)determination. Provide any new or additional facts to support your protest or appeal.
- File all required tax reports online and/or attach copies of any documents, correspondence, or other types of information which may clarify the issue you are protesting or appealing. These documents will not be returned to you.
- Your protest or appeal must be in writing. The UIA must receive your protest or appeal within 30 days after the mailing date of the determination or (re)determination. If your protest or appeal is received after 30 days, it may affect the decision you receive.
- ALL PROTEST OR APPEALS SHOULD BE MAILED OR FAXED TO:

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AGENCY
P.O. BOX 8068
ROYAL OAK, MI 48068-8068
